

Catholic Laymen Open Meeting Hailed Success

IN THE KITCHEN . . . Cliff Hudson (left) and Gerry Revere prepare hickory smoked spare ribs for the 250 Catholic laymen and guests who met last week in a quarterly open meeting sponsored by Los Crusados, South Bay Knights of Columbus organization.

Climaxing their year-long membership drive, 250 Catholic laymen gathered together last week in their quarterly open meeting. Many notables were present and included Albert Isen, mayor of Torrance; Robert Maglein, State Advocate of the Knights of Columbus; and Sean Meany, Irish comedian and singer.

The meeting began with a prayer by Father Joseph Gargallo, followed immediately by the pledge of allegiance, which was led by Comm. Andrew Dallenforfer, of 416 Via Linda Vista.

Isen was introduced to the gathering by Father Patrick J. McGuinness, pastor of Nativity Catholic church here. Isen commented on the public spirit of the Knights of Columbus, and offered his cooperation in future civic activities of the Knights.

Growth Cited
State Advocate Maglein extended his congratulations to the council on their growth in the past year, as well as warn those present of the dangers of Communism in the United States, and their duties to protect America from the loss of its basic freedom. Maglein declared, "The attributes of Catholic laymen are, the will to work in the community and church, and to join with all in promoting the best interest of our fellow citizens and country."

Entertainment was provided by Sean Meany, recent Irish import from Limerick City, Ireland, and has been in America since last July. He has entertained at the Mosombo, and has worked with such celebrities as Lawrence Welk and on the Ed Sullivan show. Meany also stated that at this time he is working in a Hollywood production called "Battle Hell."

Ribs Served
Meany kept the show moving in a rollicking mood, with his Irish humor and songs, a few of which were "Dear Old Donegal," "An Irishman's Dream,"

Shell Chemical Cited for Year Accident-Free

Personnel at the Shell Chemical Corp. butadiene plant at Torrance recently received the Manufacturing Chemists' Assn. Certificate of Achievement for completing a full accident-free year. The 332 employees at Torrance served a total of 652,000 man hours in 1954 without an on-the-job injury.

In transmitting the award to all plant personnel, Maarten Voogd, plant manager, pointed out that workers in the chemical industry are now safer on the job than in their own homes.

and "My Wild Irish Rose."

The evening was topped off with a buffet of hickory smoked ribs, cinnamon apples, and baked beans.

Directing the program arrangements were committeemen George Schneider, Past Grand Knight; and Hugh Mulhern.

ATTEND THE CHURCH OF YOUR CHOICE REGULARLY

THEY DON'T FORGET HER

How dear she is to her sons and daughters and her grandchildren. On this, her birthday, they don't forget her. These flowers are just a token, but in each blossom there is love.

She it was who taught them their first words . . . and their first prayers. She it was to whom they came with their childhood hurts. She it was who stood ready to console them when everything had gone wrong. She it was who taught them how essential religion is to a happy life—how vital it is that they belong to and take part in the activities of a church. On her birthday they remember all of this anew. Men and women now, they are living their own lives and accomplishing their own successes. But the great truths she taught them about faith, hope, gratitude, love and fortitude will remain with them forever.

Grandmother has indeed made a great contribution to their lives. Little wonder each week in church they say a special prayer in her memory.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For the sake of his community and nation; (2) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral aid and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
